WHY UNIVERSITY OF CUMBRIA?

1

Wide range of courses

We have a wide range of courses spanning arts, business, education, health, humanities, law and social sciences and outdoors.

2

Professional accredited courses

As well as master's courses, we offer postgraduate certificates and diplomas, professional graduate certificates and university awards as well as PhD and MPhil research-based awards.

3

Legacy

Our formation in 2007 brought together institutions with legacies dating back as far as 1822. The largest of these was St Martin's College, while components such as Cumbria Institute of Arts and Charlotte Mason College provide an enviable history for a new university.

4

Locations

If you are new to the University of Cumbria you will be pleased to learn we are based at exceptional locations including Ambleside, Carlisle, Lancaster and London. All are easily accessible by rail, road and air.

5

Award winning support services

We recently won a Times Higher Education Leadership Management Award 2014 for our excellent student services support team. You are guaranteed to receive excellent support while you're studying with us.

6

Improving quality and reputation

We may be a new university, but the National Student Survey 2014 results showed we now outperform or are equal to the sector for:

- Assessment and Feedback, with a student satisfaction rating of 78%, 6% above the UK national average.
- Academic Support, 83%, 2% above the UK average.
- Learning Resources and Teaching both achieved results equal to the sector nationally at 86% and 87% respectively.

7

Experience and employment

The vocational nature of our courses with industry experienced lecturers and our strong employment record.
